MOTHERS

and those soon to become mothers should know that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures child-birth of its tortures, horrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Mrs. DORA A. GUYTON, of Oakton, Va., writes: "When I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' I was not able to stand on my feet without suffering almost death. Now I do all my housework, washing, cooking, sewing and everything for my family of eight. I am stronger now than I have been in six years. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best to take before confinement, or at least it proved so with me. I never suffered as little with any of my children as I did with my last, and she is the healthiest we've got. Have induced several to try 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has proved good for them."

A Home Wedding.

DELAPLANE, Va., Jan. 10.—One of the most beautiful weddings that has ever taken place in upper Fauquier was solemnized at the hospitable residence of Mr. H. S. Ashby at Delaplane on the 9th inst. The spacious rooms were tastefully and elaborately decorated with flowers, evergreens and potted plants; while innumerable throws, over which were pink shades, threw a soft and mellow glow on the lovely scene. The contracting parties were Miss Emma V. Ashby, only child of the host, and Mr. Delaney D. Butts, the ushers were Messrs. John Delaplane, of Delaplane; Channing Delaplane, of Nokesville, and Hammet Delaplane, of Washington, D. C. The bridesmaids were Miss Glascow and Miss McDaniel, of Backland; Miss Wolfe, of Manassas; Miss Smith, Miss Ashby, and Miss Green, of Fauquier. They wore white organdie trimmed in chiffon and carried bows of white satin ribbon with long streamers forming the aisle as they entered the parlor to the enlivening strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Dr. T. Wolfe, of Manassas, followed by the maid of honor, Miss McDonald, daughter of Judge McDonald, of Warm Springs, and Mr. J. B. Hall, of Warren county, as best man. The maid of honor carried La France roses. The bride was attired in white brocade silk, long train and veil with trimmings of old point and orange blossoms, diamond ornaments, she came in the arm of the groom, Neil roses and maiden hair buns. Standing under the white satin umbrella covered with smilax, the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Campbell, during which the low notes of Fritz Lullaby wafted softly through the room. After the ceremony a perfect circle was formed around the happy pair for congratulations. Indeed to one such a fair scene hardly comes in a life. The elegant repast was served in the most beautiful style and was all that could tempt the appetite, including meats, salads, ices, fruits, &c. The table decorations were in green and white, which made one forget the storm outside and imagine that mosses and ferns were growing in all their spring freshness. The popularity of the bride was well proven by the hundreds of elegant presents, which consisted of china, glass, silverware, pictures and other numerous valuables. A number of relatives and friends from a distance were among the numerous guests present. The bridal couple left on the 7:27 train.

AN EPIDEMIC OF STABBING.—

The strange epidemic of insanity which prompts its subjects to stab strangers, usually women, in the streets of London is not yet ended and popular nervousness in several quarters of the city continues. One of the most startling cases occurred Wednesday, in front of a fashionable store on Oxford street, in the midst of a large throng of shoppers. A young man plunged a knife three inches deep in the back of a lady and then quietly waited until the police came and arrested him. The prisoner, who is of good reputation, declared in court that he was unable to account for his action, and said that a strange, irresistible impulse to stab some one seized him suddenly, and he acted on it the same instant. He never had seen the victim until that moment. The police have been watching two or three weeks a person they believe to be the mysterious woman in black whose stabbing others of her sex put Kensington and other parts of the West End in terror for weeks. This amazing contagion of homicidal mania is the subject of serious discussion of both physicians and laymen. Professor Forbes Winslow, the great expert in mental diseases, takes occasion to urge a radical change in the lunacy laws.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Dr. J. B. Bazzard, of West Monterey, Cal., writes: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I had long suffered are gone. —W. J. Hitchcock, Delta Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results. —Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment

Is a certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Granulated Eye Lids, Sore Nipples, Piles, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head, 25 cents per box. For sale by Dr. J. B. Bazzard.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

For putting a horse in a fine healthy condition try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders. They tone up the system, aid digestion, cure loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving new life to an old or overworked horse. 25 cents per package. For sale by L. Stabler & Co., Druggists.

that is the date of a letter from Mr. JAS. E. BROWN, 524 Pacific Ave., Dallas, Tex.—He lost his strength from overwork, and like so many others, took Brown's Iron Bitters.

He says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine I have ever taken. I had been suffering for a year from extreme weakness, caused by overwork, and two bottles renewed my strength entirely. I am glad to say so."

Not a miracle, but just another cure brought about by Brown's Iron Bitters. Do you take it?

ANNA GOULD'S LOVE AFFAIR.—

The story that young Anna Gould is to marry young Harry Woodruff has been revived again. The fair-haired young actor visited New York for two weeks lately, on his holiday vacation from Harvard College, where he is studying. While in the city Mr. Woodruff put up at the Lambs' Club, and spent some time in visiting theatres. One visit brought him to the Metropolitan Opera House, and he visited the Gould box, and during the intermission walked the corridor with Edwin Gould, the second brother. Woodruff returned to Harvard Monday, and almost immediately rumors began to fly around town that the engagement between Miss Gould and Woodruff had been renewed and sanctioned by the family. The statement was remarkable from the circumstance that since the rumored betrothal of the handsome young actor she has been engaged to William Harriman, which contract was suddenly broken off last spring while the fair fiancée was abroad with Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould for the expressed purpose of purchasing a wedding trousseau. Miss Gould is now in Paris.

A former attachment between the pair was broken by the late Jay Gould and Woodruff then gave his promise to cease his attentions entirely until Miss Gould became of age.

CONVICTION OF IDOLATERS.—

The trial has been concluded at Viatka, Russia, of eleven persons belonging to the sect known as Votiks. They are accused of human sacrifice in order to propitiate the wrath of their evil god, Koubrahe. The prisoners belong to the village of Staromoutian, several of them being among the leading inhabitants. One of the prisoners was seventy years old. According to the evidence furnished at the trial, in March last, in order to prevent, as they claimed, a recurrence of famine, they inveigled a beggar into the house of one of the prisoners, Moses Dimitrieff, where the beggar's throat was cut. The unfortunate man was afterwards beheaded, and then his headless trunk was hung up to the ceiling of Dimitrieff's house, and five incisions were made in the body. The blood from these incisions was caught in dishes by the prisoners, and the heart and lungs of the dead man were extracted, in order to be used in the religious rites of the Votiks. The body was afterwards thrown into a ditch by the side of the highway. Three of the prisoners were acquitted, some of them were sentenced to penal servitude for life, and others were sent to Siberia.

317 KING STREET.

One more day of shopping, and the rush will be over. Just one word for this last day. We have wired two factories for Banquet Lamps and Tables; and they will be here MONDAY. The demand has exhausted our supply; and if our prices were not lower than other dealers, this would not have been the case. As it is in this line, so is it in all others. When you buy China and Glass you want to be sure that you are getting it good; and a regular dealer in this line knows his business and you feel safe in buying of him. Then remember that on this coming Monday you want to finish up your shopping with us. Look us over, we have bargains left yet; and you can secure them. If you have been to Washington looking round, then we especially invite you to come in and compare with our prices. You will be surprised when you do this, to find we are offering the very best as low as the Cheap-Johns offer their odds and ends.
